Why Choose the Penrallt Country House Hotel as your Special Venue?

Firstly, a huge congratulations on your up-and-coming celebrations!

We truly love a wedding and we really will ensure it is as bespoke as you would like it to be.

We are a beautiful Edwardian House that is steeped in history – 1908 to be precise, fit for an intimate wedding of up to 55 people for a Wedding Breakfast, with an unlimited amount of people who can be invited for the after-party celebrations.

Set in nearly 30 Acres of beautiful, landscaped grounds, it is picture perfect for any wedding shots, from the ground to up high from one of our balconies overlooking the spectacular bay of Cardigan and beyond. The ocean changes from day to day and whatever the weather, it creates a memory forever in your mind.

We have Grandparents and Parents who have married here in the past and the grace and glamour still lends itself to an unpretentious yet special place to say, "I do". The lovingly restored building stands the test of time and allows for the glamour and luxury, yet a truly relaxed and refined approach to all weddings we hold.

What we can offer and what makes us different.

Our weddings are like no other, in that we really do make each bespoke. We are not governed by corporate policy and this is where we can make things so individual.

No size fits all and we genuinely mean this. Your day is just that, your day, and we encourage creativity and imagination to ensure you allow for what you both would like as well as your guests, as after all, it is a day for all to remember.

And so, we have thrown away the “packages” and the general rule book and will create one just for your wedding. Times are changing and no wedding is the same.

We will sit down with you and run through the finer detail of the day, timings and the small touches to really create that fairy tale, yet one that is fun and memorable for all.

This means everything from the drinks you would like pre ceremony along with canapes, through to the wedding breakfast and what food you really would like, toasts, speeches and the party beyond, we can work out the timings to suit you. Of course, this will then be quoted accordingly after our meeting via email, so that you are clear on every detail.

There is no end to what we can achieve for you. All we ask is advanced notice so we can ensure everything runs seamlessly.

We ask for £2000 deposit for all weddings, with a further 50%, 6 months prior to your wedding and the final balance 1 month before the wedding day.

What do we require from you?

Some of your time, to visit our beautiful venue, discuss the above and make sure you feel it is right for you. There will be lots of questions from us, but not all need to be decided on the day. It is a process and one that aims to take the stress away from you.

Please note that we cannot quote over the telephone as our venue really does need to be visited to truly appreciate it.

If you feel it is the perfect fit, amazing, we can take the rest from there for you.

We look forward to welcoming you to our beautiful hotel.
